

Hello, I analyzed a data set about popular baby names in NYC. That can be found at <https://data.cityofnewyork.us/Health/Popular-Baby-Names/25th-nujf>

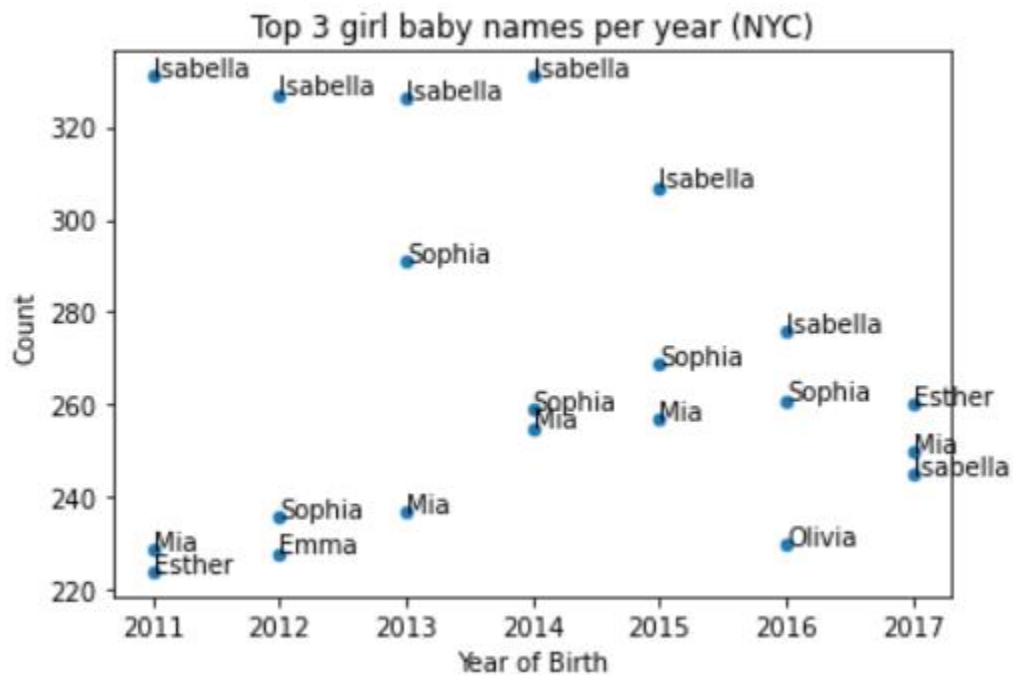

It turns out, Isabella is a very popular baby name for girls, winning the first spot 6 years in a row, likewise for boys Jayden and Liam were picked for most baby names for boys.

Interestingly, even though boys are named the popular name more there are more girls born, which tells us there is more variety in girl names than there are boy names.

As we saw before Isabella was a really popular baby name 10 years ago but it seems to have fallen favor lately. Sophia also seems to be a popular name

Jayden was the most popular boy name before dropping off in 2014 and Liam appearing in its place. Maybe there was a popular movie or an actor stood out that year.
